Agree. I think his post must carry with it a duty allowance. But apart from this, Mr Kelkar has done his work well, has stopped a lot of leakage & saved as his work & his popularity and is entitled to some consideration. We can't move unless & until we get his & his staff remain contented and work whole heartedly. A duty allowance of Rs 50 is not much & may be demanded.

Final Note by the Second Member of Council.

Subject:-

Duty allowance to Mr. G. B. Heblikar, Special Collector of Income-tax, Bangalore and Mysore Cities.

In May 1921, the Commissioner of Income-tax recommended the grant of a consolidated duty and conveyance allowance of Rs.100/- per mensem to Mr. Heblikar in view of the arduous nature of his work. The then Second Member of Council (Mr.P.Raghavendra Rao) was in favour of sanctioning an allowance, but the consideration of the question was deferred as Mr. Heblikar had received his promotion to the Senior - Assistant Commissioner's grade a little earlier by reason of his - appointment as Special Collector.

2. Now that Mr.Heblikar has got his promotion in due course and some of his juniors are acting in appointments which give them higher pay ~~emoluments~~, Mr. Heblikar has repeated his request for the grant of a suitable allowance from the date of his joining the appointment and the Commissioner of Income-tax has supported the request.

3. When the papers were submitted to me, I minuted as follows:-

"I think the post must carry with it a duty allowance, but apart from this, Mr.Heblikar has done his work well and stopped a lot of leakage at the risk of his popularity and is entitled to some consideration. We can get more revenue if an officer of this stamp remains contented and works whole-heartedly. A duty allowance of Rs.50/- a month is not much and may be sanctioned".

4. The First Member of Council agreed with me in my views.

5. The question was considered at the last meeting of the Council. It was felt that the allowance of Rs.50 proposed was not a sufficient - remuneration, having regard to the arduous nature of the duties and the temptations to which an officer holding the appointment of - Special Collector is exposed. Besides as Under Secretary to the Government Mr. Heblikar was getting an allowance of Rs.75/- a month which he lost on his appointment as a Special Collector. The Council therefore resolved 'that the Special Income-tax Collector for Bangalore and Mysore may be given a duty allowance of Rs.100/- in addition to his grade pay as Senior Assistant Commissioner with effect from ~~the~~ date of order.'

6. The Financial Secretary to whom the papers were forwarded has offered no remarks.

7. The opinion of the Council may be graciously approved.

K. CHANDY, ESQ., B.A.,

TO

K. Matthan, Esq, B.A.,
Chief Secretary to Government,
Bangalore.

Sir,

Key. Y.

With reference to your D.O. letter No. 363 C.B. dated the 20th July 1921 stating that the question of granting an allowance to Mr. G.B. Heblikar, Special Income Tax Collector may be deferred till the results of the first year's assessment and adjustments necessary to be made in them are known I have the honor to submit herewith a copy of D.O. letter No. 198 of the 9th instant received from Mr. G.B. Heblikar, Special Income Tax Collector, praying for the grant of a suitable duty allowance from the date of his joining the appointment as Special Collector. In view of the arduous nature of his work I beg to recommend that he may be given a suitable duty allowance per mensem from the date of his joining the appointment of Special Collector.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

K Chandy

Commissioner of Income Tax.

Jth

Commissioner of Income Tax, in Mysore.

With reference to your D.O. letter No. O.C. 546/20-21 dated 21st July 1921 forwarding copy of the Chief Secretary's D.O. letter No. 363/ C.B. dated 20th July 1921 stating that the question of granting an allowance to me may be deferred till the results of the first year's assessment and adjustments necessary to be made in them are known, I beg to state that I have now practically assessed all the companies and that the income from the companies registered in and outside the Mysore State will far exceed the actual total receipts of the last year. I have already collected an amount equal to the last year's total receipts and I expect that when the individual assessments are all completed, the total receipts will exceed the last year's receipts by at least two and a half lakhs.

2. I have already explained the difficulties which confronted me at the beginning and how I got over them. I have been working under very high pressure since my transfer to this Department, not to speak of the study I have been making in incometax literature of various countries to enable me to ~~to~~ discharge my duties efficiently and to the satisfaction of the general public without giving room for leakage of revenue to Government. You are also perfectly aware of the great physical and mental strain to which I am subjected to.

3. By my transfer to this office I have lost the duty allowance which I was getting as under-Secretary to Government in the Revenue Department for doing work which was both less arduous and less responsible. As pointed out in my first letter, the Special Incometax officers in British India get a duty allowance of at least Rs 200/- over and above their pay. As my work is quite as heavy as that of these officers, I would request you to move the Government to sanction to me a suitable Duty allowance from the date of my joining this appointment
